SUPPORT A COMMUNITY COMMITTED TO CHILDREN

Located in the Logan Square neighborhood, Greene Towne Montessori School is the only accredited Montessori school in downtown Philadelphia. Founded in 1966 by a group of parents with a vision for a racially, religiously, and economically integrated school, Greene Towne has built a legacy of nurturing confident, compassionate, and capable children who make the world better with their presence.

WHY PARTNER WITH GREENE TOWNE?

Your sponsorship directly supports the next generation of curious, creative thinkers while connecting your business with a vibrant, engaged community of Philadelphia families. Sponsors receive recognition across our auction events, online platforms, and printed materials — reaching hundreds of current and alumni families, as well as local supporters.

As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, Greene Towne remains committed to equity and community engagement through:

- Professional development for faculty, including Montessori credential sponsorships
- Tuition assistance, widening access to a Greene Towne education for more Philadelphia children
- Neighborhood partnerships, strengthening our impact in the larger urban community
